

Signalment: 6 year old, Male Castrated, Doberman Pinscher

Presenting Complaint: Vomiting for 1 week

Brief history: The dog ate several corn cobs at the beginning of August, then presented to KSU CVM on 8/11/08 for multiple episodes of vomiting

Physical Exam:

- Doberman alopecia
- Painful on abdominal palpation
- Temperature of 101.4 degrees F, Pulse and Heart Rate of 135, Respiratory rate of 24
- Attitude was depressed

Diagnostic Plan: CBC, Chemistry Panel, Abdominal Radiographs

Hematology Abnormalities:

- Neutrophilia and Lymphopenia
- Hyponatremia
- Hypochloremia

Radiographs:

