

What's Your Diagnosis?

Signalment:

3 year old intact male Labrador Retriever.

History:

The patient presented for anorexia of the past week. He was still drinking, very depressed, and had lost weight.

Exam Findings:

The patient was pale and dehydrated. He was sensitive to abdominal palpation and upon rectal exam he was tense, painful.

Blood Work:

CBC:

Hgb: 20.4 g/dL (↑)

Hct: 59.1 g/dL (↑)

Neutrophils: 57 (↓)

Bands: 11 (↑)

Lymphocytes: 7 (↓)

Monocytes: 20 (↑)

Chemistry:

Glucose: 123 (↑)

Chloride : 91 (↓)

Diagnostic Plan:

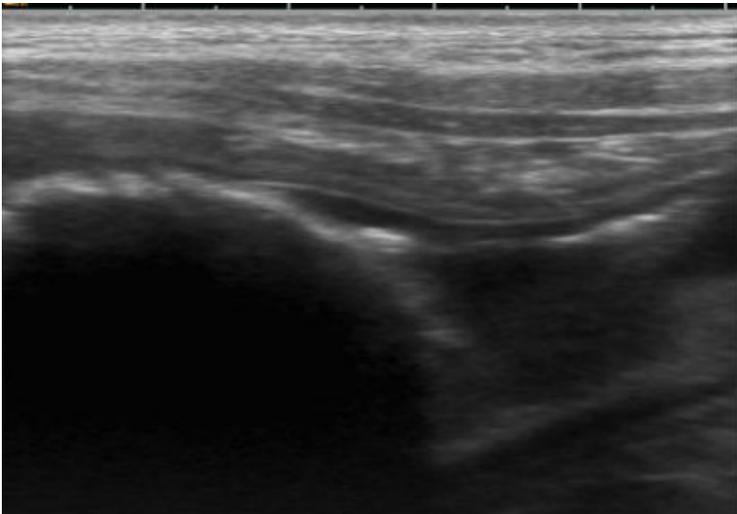

Radiographs and ultrasound.

Radiographs:

Ultrasound:

Longitudinal ultrasound of the jejunum.